AMC Seminar Tour

On April 18-19, a group of 22 DLA Aviation employees, including two active duty Air Force personnel, participated in a casting seminar and tour of Buck Company Foundry in Quarryville, PA. The goal of the event was to provide a forum whereby DLA Aviation employees could learn more about metalcasting processes, parts, and tooling in order to gain better understanding of how these elements affect administrative and production lead times.

AMC Participated in DLA Industry Day

On May 16-17, DLA Aviation hosted Supplier Industry Day. The event focused on specific training regarding various operational issues and needs as identified by suppliers and the DLA Aviation workforce. Twenty suppliers attended the two Casting and Forging breakout sessions to ask questions and learn more about how DLA procures cast and forged parts.

AMC Upcoming Technology Review

The annual AMC Technology Review will be held in Chicago, IL on July 12-13, 2017. The review features applied R&D projects from the Casting Solutions for Readiness (CSR) program with over 50 attendees from industry, academia, and government attending.

121st Metalcasting Congress

AMC participated as an exhibitor and provided technical presentations at the 121st Metalcasting Congress sponsored by the American Foundry Society. This is one of North America's largest annual events for the metalcasting industry, combining an exhibition of industry suppliers with technical, management, and research presentations from experts around the world. This year's event took place on April 25-27, 2017 at the Milwaukee Convention Center, Milwaukee, WI and was attended by over 2,200 industry and government representatives.
